I Officer Reports

Cheryl – MIT Police

MIT Police are working together with neighboring colleges and they get weekly reports.

Don't give other police departments a hard time – ask them if it's okay to call MIT Police. Make sure the parties are registered. You can even call the station and give a cell phone number to have them call.

Work with your neighbors before a party.

MIT Police has new posters available, you can pick them up.

Cheryl's cell phone number: 617-529-6943

II Old Business

III New Business

A FSILG office

If you didn't have someone go to the Risk Manager Roundtable, you should go talk to Chris or David in the FSILG office.

David passed around MIT Hazing forms, every student has to sign the hazing information form. You must return them to the office!

Family weekend is coming up, you should start planning events for your chapter.

The FSILG office provides funding for groups doing retreats, come talk to David if you want to have a retreat that's helped being funded.
